

Ghost/ Water Colour Flowers

This includes flowers with distinct differences in the tepal colouring, displaying a dilute or loss of colour of the tepal on the inner surfaces in places. Flowers of 'White Lips' and 'Ghost' are examples of this type of tepal.

With a portion of the colour of the tepals appearing diluted or washed out, presenting as faded blotches with indistinct edges gradually merging into the darker colour of the tepal edges.

As per Illustrated Terms and Definitions for Describing Clivia
by William McClelland